Most Rev. Diarmuid Martin Archbishop of Dublin Archbishop's House, Drumcondra, Dublin 9 Ireland

Your Excellency.

I would like to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 19 February 2010 regarding Mr. Andrew Basquille and his English Language School.

Rev. Fr. John Lee, procurator of Archdiocese of Taipei and Executive Director of the Kuang Jen Cultural & Education Foundation met Mr. Andrew Basquille at Taipei and Fr. John Lee had a good impression about his English Language School.

We have 29 Catholic middle and high Schools in Taiwan and most of the students are not catholic and we are promoting the evangelization in our Catholic Schools.

I would like to recommend Mr. Andrew Basquille and his English Language School because through his Catholic spirituality, our students can learn more about the Catholicism and the Church.

I take this occasion to express my personal esteem for your Excellency and to assure you of my prayer for your valuable ministry.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

John Hung Shap Chuan, S.V.D.

Re. Andrew Basquille 30 Clarinda Park West, Dun Laoghaire, Co. Dublin

Your Grace,

I have been asked by Andrew Basquille, to provide you with a reference for him.

This request arose out of a meeting with your Secretary, Father Jae-Young Lee, Executive Director of the Kuang Jen Cultural & Education Foundation, who was interested in recommending to others Andrew's language school.

Andrew is a committed Catholic. He is a member of the Parish of St. Michael's Church, Dun Laoghaire and takes an active part in the life of the Church. He attends Mass daily at St. Michael's Church. He is also a member of the Focolare movement. He has been appointed to the Diocesan Committee of the International Eucharist Congress which is being held in Dublin in 2012.

Wishing you God's blessing,

Yours sincerely,
